

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Along with the new image which ADARA is sporting, we have also decided to give JADARA a new look. Over the last couple of years, many people have asked if it would be possible to make the journal easier to read. As a result of consultations with professionals at RIT, we have come up with a new, single column format that is produced in a larger type face. We hope these improvements will make reading the journal easier. This will also help your ageing editor do a better job proofing the copy!

As usual, when I write such letters, I must make an appeal for submission of articles, book reviews, information of general interest, or your own personal view on a controversial topic. The quality of JADARA is closely linked to the number of manuscripts it receives. Let me assure you that we are not overwhelmed with quality manuscripts. Yours will be given careful consideration.

If you are planning a presentation at the ADARA conference in Kansas City, consider preparing a written paper to accompany your presentation. Not only could you use the paper as a handout at the meeting, but you could submit it for publication in JADARA. I will be happy to personally receive your paper in Kansas City.

So, get yourself to your keyboard! Tell us what you are doing, what you are reading, and give us your opinions. This is one way you can introduce yourself to the membership of ADARA.
